PRESENTATION

Château Lilian Ladouys 2016 has a very deep garnet red color with magnificent purplish reflections.

Composed of 62% Merlot, its nose is explosive: crushed raspberry, cherry in brandy, bitter cocoa, cedar ... An ample attack, on the volume and fat, leads to a dense mouth, a powerful and velvety.

Château Lilian Ladouys 2016 reveals delicious cherry, orange peel, chocolate and nutmeg flavors that stretch for a long time on the palate. A great success!

CULTURAL METHODS

Born in the 16th century, Château Lilian Ladouys was built by Jacques de Becoyran, Lord of Lafite. After many vicissitudes, the property was hit hard by the wars and economic crises that hit the 20th century.

As a result, the vineyard is divided.

But, bought by the Lorenzetti family in 2008, Château Lilian Ladouys is gradually returning to the light. Situated on the reliefs of the Saint-Estèphe appellation, the vineyard extends over about 50 hectares, with a predominantly Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot grape variety. Offering delicacy, voluptuousness and subtlety, the wines of Lilian Ladouys are above all dedicated to epicureans.

Vinen er lagret på franske egefade hvoraf 30 % er nye fade. Det giver et optimal grundlag for at kunne lave en god cuvée med blend fra forskellige tønder.
